

Week: Sunday, Jan 20th
Text: 2 Cor. 3:7-4:10

Take some time and share one win and one fail from this week.

Let's Discuss

- Share a time when you did something you thought was cool/fun and immediately paid the consequences for that action.
- Would you do it again?
- Have you ever done something in which someone else reaped the consequences for your actions? Tell us about that experience.

- Have someone read this translation/paraphrase of the 2 Corinthians 4:1-2 (MSG) passage:

"Since God has so generously let us in on what he is doing, we're not about to throw up our hands and walk off the job just because we run into occasional hard times. We refuse to wear masks and play games. We don't maneuver and manipulate behind the scenes. And we don't twist God's Word to suit ourselves. Rather, we keep everything we do and say out in the open, the whole truth on display, so that those who want to can see and judge for themselves in the presence of God."

- What do you think God let us in on? (Read 2 Cor. 3:18 for a clue)
- What masks do we wear or games do we play in regard to our faith?
- In what ways are we tempted to manipulate God's Word for our own benefit?
- Read 2 Corinthians 4:6.
- What tools are we given to help us be people that authentically "walk in the light"?
- As we pray today, let's pray for one another as we make decisions everyday that affect us and others around us in regards to their response to Jesus.
