

Week: Sunday, Oct 14th
Text: Luke 10:38-42

Remember the questions given each week are just a launching point. You can use all of them or just a few of them as you try to create healthy God-honoring discussion in your group.

Checking-in

- What's one Win and one Fail from your week?

Get in the Word

- Read Luke 10:38-42 together.
- Are you more of a Martha or a Mary in your relationship with Jesus?
- Out of the five balls we all juggle—work, family, health, friends, and spirit—which one is the most likely dropped by most people?
- Which one is most likely to be dropped by you if you had to cut back due to overload?
- One of the least followed verses in scripture is Psalm 46:10: “Be still and know that I am God.” Why do you think that is?
- Are you pushing the limit of any of the following: physical, emotional, mental, space, or time? Why is it important to examine the priorities in your life?
- How can practicing of the tools of our faith—prayer, journaling, singing, reading the Word, participating in some kind of small group—help you with the limits and juggling?
- Are there one or two things you can do this week that will draw you closer to Jesus?
- How can we continue in prayer for one another?
