

Week: Sunday, Mar 31st
Text: John 8:1-11

For those of you reading along in the book of John, what's the Lord teaching you?

Let's Discuss

- Read John 8:1-11
- What are your initial, 100% honest thoughts when you read/hear this passage?
- Why are we quick to judge the women caught in adultery?
- Why do we elevate certain sins above others?
- If we are really to identify ourselves as one of the characters in this story who are we? (hint: Not Jesus)
- Read John 10:10. Unpack those words that describe the enemy's motives for you.
- In what ways does the "thief" warp our perspective, our motives, and our intentions with regard to what God created to be good in this world?
- Beyond eternal life, what does it mean to you that Jesus came so that you can have life to the full?
- How do we reclaim this life as Satan seeks to corrupt it?
- If we return to the story of John 8, what truth should we take away from this text for our lives this week?
