

Week: Sunday, June 30th
Text: John 4:1-26

Let's Discuss

- What are some things that can make conversation with others awkward?
- What are some of the hardest topics to talk with other about?
- What are some obstacles to meaningful conversation?

- Read John 4:1-26 together

- Samaritans and Jews had a long history of strife and tension between one another. What makes Jesus' intentional approach to the woman in this village unique?
- Put yourself in this situation and imagine what the woman and the disciples must have been thinking to themselves. Discuss.
- What can we learn from Jesus' approach to conversation?

- Someone read James 1:19.

- Why do those words fly contrary to most people's approach to conversation?
- What ways do they bring health to conversation?
- Get personal. What things in our own conversations do we need to repent?
