

Week: Sunday, Aug 11th
Text: Psalm 123

Let's Discuss

- Check in with one another. What are the highs and lows of your week?
- Describe a time where you were served by someone in a way that humbled you or moved you emotionally?
- In what ways does serving another person change your attitude or demeanor?
- Read Psalm 123.
- What does it mean to approach God with an attitude of a servant?
- There are times in our faith journey, when we as believers, treat God like a “cosmic vending machine”. If we’re not careful, that attitude can be our default attitude toward God. Why do you think that is?
- Why does the attitude “God exists to serve me” get us no where?
- What should our posture toward God be?
- Pastor Mark said Sunday, “The attitude you take as you go through life will determine how you live.” In what ways are these words true?
- The psalmist cries out for mercy from God in this psalm. Is God’s mercy a guarantee?
- Take time to follow up on requests we’ve been praying for as a group and look for answers to prayer or the need to follow up.
