

Week: Sunday, Aug 26th
Text: Hebrews 10:19-25

Sunday-related Announcement: This Sunday, September 2nd there is a pancake breakfast in between our two morning gathering times (approx 9:45-11:00 am).

Checking-in

- A few of you, name a “God moment” you had this last week.
- In what ways did you ponder ways to “spur” someone on since we last met? (Hebrews 10:24 from last week)

Get in the Word

- Read Hebrews 10:19-25 together as a group.
- Honing in on vs 25, the greek word translated “meeting” is episunagoge, which means “a gathering together.” Do you think it is important to continue gather as Christ-followers in a world that values individualism? Why?
- Read Acts 2:42-47. What did the early church include in its gathering times?
- What is an absolute non-negotiable when we gather as believers?
- What are potential positive byproducts of our gathering together?
- Hebrews 10:25 tells us to “encourage - all the more as we see the Day approaching.” Why do you think we’re going to need to gather and encourage more as we see “the Day” approaching?
